AMPATH Digital Video Working Group Meeting

- This interactive TV program puts together people in Natal-Brazil and Miami-EUA watching the same program at the same time
- It was implemented to run over the Java TV platform, so it runs in set-top boxes and digital TV sets
    - A set-top box will cost less then $100
- Here is a way to include more peoples in the "information society"

AMPATH Digital Video Working Group Meeting

- If you agree that this is the way, here are some things to do …
  - Find and, if possible, pay someone to design and implement the site
  - Repeat this demo in the Internet2 Spring Meeting enlarging the scale
  - Write a project to find financial support to the "Latin American Open Television Channel"
